ETCP 5 Safety rules for 2020 Seminars

- We have decided to open the pre-registration for the second semester of 2020 in the respect of the following principles:
  1. Selection of places with lowest risk of infection
  2. Limited number of participants per group
  3. Minimum distance in the room between participants
  4. Extended distance with lecturers during presentation
  5. Permanent use of ETCP platform to ask questions and collect documents
- We will deliver our training based on mutual trust : both participants and lecturers are responsible to respect and alert the others in case of any alert and to apply the national recommendations in a proportionated way including where necessary masks, washing hands and physical distance.
- In addition, you are free to cancel at any moment and confirmation of seminars will occur in line with national situations and recommendations.
